A continuing education service of Penn State College of Medicine and Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center
Department of Orthopaedics and Rehabilitation

PENNSTATE HERSHEY
College of Medicine

Purpose

This program's aim is to encourage collegiality and discussion among Penn State orthopaedic alumni and area community orthopaedists. Additional goals include updating surgeons and other health-care providers on current trends in total joint arthroplasty and providing an educational forum for the collaboration of ideas and thoughts on difficult joint arthroplasty cases.

Audience

Physicians, physician assistants, nurses, PhDs, residents, and any health-care provider with an interest in orthopaedics is invited to participate in our program.

Objectives

Upon completion of this conference, participants should be able to:

1. Describe and manage complications of total joint arthroplasty
2. Explain techniques for revision of TJA
3. Discuss management of hip and knee arthritis in the elderly patient

Credit

Penn State College of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Penn State College of Medicine designates this educational activity for a maximum of 6.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
