

Finding a Physician for Your Newborn

There are many decisions to be made to make sure that your newborn baby is healthy and safe. One of those decisions is finding a physician. If you haven't chosen a physician at the time of delivery, a nurse from the nursery will call one of the Penn State Hershey Medical Group locations to schedule an appointment for your newborn. Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center has family practices conveniently located in Centre, Cumberland, Dauphin, Lancaster, and Lebanon.
