PENNSTATE HERSEY
 College of Medicine

A continuing education service of Penn State College of Medicine

Purpose

The mission of this program is to raise awareness of and disseminate knowledge about developments in the care of people with neurological conditions.

Audience

Physicians and health-care providers involved in the management of neurological diseases can benefit from attending this program.

Objectives

At the conclusion of the program, participants should be able to:

1. Recognize the latest treatments for epilepsy and select the appropriate treatment
2. Choose the appropriate diagnostic algorithm for acute stroke
3. Differentiate among common or overlapping movement disorders

Credit

Penn State has approved each program for 0.4 Continuing Education Units (CEUs).

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint sponsorship of Penn State College of Medicine and Pennsylvania Neurological Society. Penn State College of Medicine is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Penn State College of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 4.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

It is our policy to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all of our sponsored educational programs. Faculty and course directors have disclosed relevant financial relationships with commercial companies, and Penn State has a process in place to resolve any conflict of interest. Complete faculty disclosure will be provided to program participants at the beginning of the activity.

Accommodations

Overnight accommodations are the responsibility of program participants. To reserve a room at The Hotel Hershey, call 717-533-2171 or 800-533-3131 and mention Penn State Continuing Education/PA Neurological Society. Rooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis. A list of accommodations in the Hershey area is available on request or online at hmc.psu.edu/visitors/dininglodging.htm. We recommend that you make reservations as early as possible.

Location

The Hotel Hershey is one of America's landmark hotels. Situated high atop the town of Hershey, Pennsylvania, the 1930's hotel is a recipient of both the Forbes Four-Star Award and the AAA Four-Diamond Award. The Hotel Hershey is also a member of Historic Hotels of America.

An official resort of Hersheypark, The Hotel Hershey comes complete with a delightful spa and access to four distinctive golf courses. It's an elegant destination resort that's right in the heart of Hershey, the sweetest place on earth.

Hershey is conveniently located in central Pennsylvania, just 90 minutes from Baltimore and Philadelphia, two hours from Washington, DC, and three hours from New York City. For additional information about Hershey, PA, please visit HersheyPA.com or call 1-800-HERSHEY (437-7439).

Access

Penn State encourages persons with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. If you anticipate needing any type of special accommodation or have questions about the physical access provided, please contact Continuing Education at least one week in advance of your participation or visit.

This publication is available in alternative media on request.
