Call for Nominations: 2011 Woodward Lecturer

The Woodward Endowment for Medical Science Education Steering Committee is calling for nominations for the 2011 Woodward Lecturer, who will present the keynote address during the EdVenture Education Celebration to be held April 13th and 14th, 2011. The ideal candidate would be an inspirational and topical speaker with national reputation, who is an innovator in medical, biomedical, or nursing education and has broad-based appeal.

Please send nominations to Lisa Harman at lhorman@hmc.psu.edu by September 20th, 2010. Nominations should include the nominee's full contact information, a description of the nominee's qualifications, and a compelling argument for his or her selection.
