

Pharmacy Practice Residency Preceptors

	Vincent A. Lacroce, Pharm.D, Vince has been on staff at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center since January of 1985 in various capacities. Currently, he is the Administrative Director of Pharmacy and has been involved in the residency program since its inception in 1986. Vince received a B.S. in Pharmacy from Temple University in 1979 and a Pharm.D. from the University of Maryland in 1984. Vince is an active member of the Pennsylvania Society of Health-System Pharmacists and ASHP. He received the Roche Preceptor of the Year Award from Temple University in 2000.
	Lisa A. Braccini-Barletta, MBA, R.Ph, is a 1986 graduate of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science. Lisa completed a General Practice Residency at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center in June 1987. She has held a variety of leadership positions at the Medical Center. In January 1992 she graduated with her Master in Business Administration from Lebanon Valley College and in October 2010, was named to her current position as Director of Pharmacy, Outpatient Services. Lisa's areas of responsibility include the Anticoagulation Clinics, the Chemotherapy and Infusion Room Pharmacy, the Investigational Drug Service, the Medication Management Clinic, the Prescription Assistance Program and the Retail Pharmacy operations including the Employee Prescription Drug Program. Lisa maintains several professional memberships and has held numerous leadership positions in several organizations.
	Gretchen L. Brummel, PharmD, BCPS, is a 1997 graduate of the University of Iowa College of Pharmacy. She completed a Pharmacy Practice residency at Meriter Hospital in Madison, WI followed by a Pediatric Pharmacy Practice residency at the Medical University of South Carolina in Charleston, SC. Gretchen has been the Clinical Pharmacy Director at PSHMC since 2012 and Residency Program Director since 2013.
	Marc Crane, Pharm.D, received his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Temple University School of Pharmacy. Marc completed a PGY-1 Pharmacy Residency at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center and is currently practicing as a clinical pharmacist in the Surgical Acute Care Unit. He is an active member of the Pennsylvania Society of Health-System Pharmacists. Marc's primary areas of interest are emergency medicine, toxicology, and infectious diseases.

	Dwayne Gallagher, Pharm.D., is a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. He completed an ASHP-accredited pharmacy practice residency at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center in 1998, and stayed on as a clinical specialist in adult critical care. In 2002, he transitioned into his current position of Pharmacy Informatics Specialist. His professional interests include meds integration, troubleshooting, writing queries, and teaching.
	Cynthia Halas, Pharm.D., received both a Bachelor of Science and Doctorate of Pharmacy degree from Duquesne University School of Pharmacy, Pittsburgh, PA. She completed an ASHP-accredited Hospital Practice Residency at Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, PA. Cindy is one of the adult critical care clinical specialists practicing in the Neuroscience Critical Care Unit. Her areas of interest are neurosurgery, neurology, and nutrition.
	Michele Haydo, Pharm.D, BCACP, received a Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Duquesne University. She completed an ASHP-accredited Pharmacy Practice Residency at the Lebanon VA Medical Center. Currently, Michele works at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center in the Medication Management Clinic.
	Frank Herrmann, R.Ph., is a 1994 graduate of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science. After participating in hospital pharmacy for several years, Frank transitioned to ambulatory care in 1999. Since then, he has been a full-time pharmacist at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center in Anticoagulation Clinic. Under his guidance, the Clinic has seen significant growth with the current patient load of more than 1500 patients and a staff of 8. The Anticoagulation Clinic is a past recipient of the Bristol-Myers Squibb Heart First Clinic Recognition Award. Frank has been a preceptor for the longitudinal rotation in ambulatory care for over 10 years. He has emphasized the resident's development of proper patient interview and communication techniques and developing professional patient-pharmacist relationships.
	Kimberly Keefer, Pharm.D, BCPS, graduated from Temple University School of Pharmacy. She completed a Pharmacy Practice Residency at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center. She currently works at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center as an internal medicine clinical pharmacist. Dr. Keefer's practice interests include: geriatrics, diabetes and hypertension.

	Jihye Kim, Pharm.D, BCPS, received a Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Wyoming School of Pharmacy. She completed an ASHP-accredited Pharmacy Practice Residency at the University of New Mexico Hospitals in Albuquerque, NM and an Infectious Diseases Pharmacy Residency at the University of California Davis Medical Center in Sacramento, CA. Areas of interest include antimicrobial stewardship, microbial resistance mechanisms, and opportunistic infections in immunosuppressed patients.
	Ronald E. Lay, MS, R.Ph, FASHP received a B.S. in Pharmacy from the University of Maryland in 1978 and an M.S. from the Ohio State University in 1981. Ron completed an ASHP accredited residency at the Ohio State University Hospital in 1981. Prior to joining the staff at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, Ron worked as a Director of Pharmacy at Humana Hospital in Cypress, Florida and Good Samaritan Hospital in Lebanon, PA and as a Pharmacy supervisor at St. Joseph Hospital in Lancaster and the Pinnacle Health System in Harrisburg. Ron is an active member of the Pennsylvania Society of Health-System Pharmacists, where he held the position of President. He also participates in a number of community and church activities and was the recipient of the PSHP Community Service Award in 2000.
	Jennifer Morrow, Pharm.D, graduated from the University of Rhode Island in 2009. She completed her pharmacy practice residency at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center. Dr. Morrow currently works as a clinical pharmacist primarily in the Heart and Vascular Institute. Her areas of interest include critical care and cardiothoracic surgery.
	Kevin M. Mulieri, BS, Pharm.D, is a 2000 graduate of the Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey. He completed residencies in Pharmacy Practice and Pediatric Pharmacy Practice at the Medical University of South Carolina. Kevin has been the Clinical Pharmacy Specialist in Pediatric Hematology/Oncology at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center since July of 2002. His primary interests include the care of pediatric patients with oncological disorders, pain management and palliative care.
	Ashley L. Quintili, PharmD, BCPS, received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Pittsburgh School of Pharmacy, Pittsburgh, PA. She completed her Pharmacy Practice Residency and Critical Care Residency at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, TN. Currently, she is the Surgical/Anesthesia Clinical at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center.

Shailja Sharma, Pharm.D, graduated in 2002 with a Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Mercer University's School of Pharmacy in Atlanta, GA. From 2002-2004, she completed an ASHP-accredited Pharmacy Practice Residency followed by an ASHP-accredited Pediatric Pharmacy Residency at The Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Shailja is the Neonatal Critical Care Clinical Pharmacy Specialist at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center. She is also a pediatric pharmacy preceptor for General Pediatrics. Areas of interest include: Pediatric Critical Care/Pediatric Infectious Diseases.

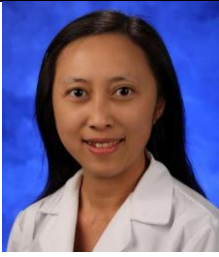

Jeffrey Sivik, PharmD, BCOP, graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with a Doctor of Pharmacy degree in 2004. He completed an ASHP-accredited Pharmacy Practice Residency at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, MD. and completed an ASHP-accredited Oncology Specialty Residency at the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute in Tampa, FL. Jeff is currently a clinical pharmacy specialist in Adult Oncology at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center and is an instructor of pharmacology at Penn State College of Medicine. He is an active member of the Hematology/Oncology Pharmacy Association (HOPA) and the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO). His primary interests focus on bone marrow transplantation/malignant hematology and the supportive care of these patients.

Lindsay C. Trout, Pharm.D, is a 2006 graduate of the Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey. She completed a Pharmacy Practice Residency at Temple University Hospital and a Pediatric Pharmacy Practice residency at University of the Sciences with a practice site at the Children's Regional Hospital at Cooper University Hospital. Lindsay has been the Clinical Pharmacy Specialist in the Pediatric Intensive Care Unit at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center since 2008. Her areas of interest include pediatric critical care, infectious disease, sepsis and medication safety.

Tracy Valania, BS, Pharm.D, graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Pharmacy from the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science and a Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Temple University School of Pharmacy. She completed an ASHP-accredited Pharmacy Practice Residency at Temple University Medical Center in Philadelphia, PA. She is a member of the American Society of Transplantation. She is the solid organ transplant clinical pharmacy specialist at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center. Her primary practice interests include: kidney, liver, and pancreas transplant and transplant related infections.

Sesi Whaley, Pharm.D., BCPS, received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from St. John's University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences, New York. She completed her Pharmacy Practice Residency at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center. Currently, she is one of the Internal Medicine Clinical Pharmacists at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center. Her practices of interests include geriatrics, toxicology, infectious diseases, and metabolic and endocrine disorders.

Lisa Hanlon Wilhelm, R.Ph., obtained her Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy at the University of Pittsburgh in 1994 and completed the ASHP Executive Residency in Association Management in 1995. Lisa has clinical experience in Infectious Diseases, Home Health Care, and the Anticoagulation Clinic. Ms. Wilhelm was the Pharmacy Practice Residency Coordinator at HMC from June 1995 through June 2000. Lisa's primary practice interest is Medication Safety. She currently coordinates the Medication Safety and Adverse Drug Reaction programs at HMC. Lisa was the Manager of the Pharmaceutical Safe Use Initiative for the National Patient Safety Foundation (NPSF) from January 1999 - August 2001. Lisa is also currently the coordinator of the ASHP National Pharmacy Student Clinical Skills Competition and works as a Project Manager for ASHP Advantage, a business unit of ASHP that coordinates all aspects of planning and conducting educational symposia.

Sallie Young, Pharm.D., BCPS, graduated from the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia (USP) with a Doctor of Pharmacy degree. Following graduation, she completed an ASHP-accredited Pharmacy Practice Residency at Mercy Suburban Hospital in Norristown, Pennsylvania as well as a specialized residency in Cardiovascular Pharmacy Practice at USP, with practice sites at University of Pennsylvania Health-System and the Philadelphia VA Hospital. Sallie is currently a Clinical Pharmacy Specialist in Cardiology at Pennsylvania State University Hospital, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center. She is a member of the Southeastern chapter of the Pennsylvania Society of Health-System Pharmacists Association, where she is a Past President. Her primary interests include acute coronary syndrome, chronic heart failure and heparin-induced thrombocytopenia.