Section 5: Rotation Information

Is the rotation a minimum of four weeks?

Is there a minimum of 32 hours/week?

What is the primary language of the off-site elective? How will you ensure that you will communicate with the patients?

Is there a foreign language requirement by your host? (Some sites require language proficiency in order for medical students to participate meaningfully in clinical work.)

If yes, please explain your relevant language skills:

Is this a language training course?

If yes, please explain:

How will your education and personal experiences be supervised on this elective?

Please discuss the travel required to get to and from the site. Who will receive/guide you? BE SPECIFIC.

Review the U.S. State Department listing for the host country. Website: http://travel.state.gov/travel/cis_pa_tw/tw/tw_1764.html

Is the host country listed in the "current travel warnings" site? If Yes, see Global Health Center for further information.

Does the country require a VISA for entry? (<http://www.travel.state.gov/>)

I have reviewed the country information.

What are the local diseases to which you may be exposed and state how you will minimize your risks for these exposures? (i.e. list specifics such as immunizations). Website (CDC Yellowbook): www.ncdc.gov/Travel/contentYellowBook.aspx. Specifically indicate whether yellow fever immunization is required or recommended .

Describe how risks to your personal safety will be minimized:

Why and how will the rotation provide you with a medical experience that is not otherwise obtainable at PSU COM?

Describe the learning environment (i.e. clinic, hospital) and patient population you are going to encounter:

Please describe the nature of the elective/MSR in terms of what your responsibilities will include?
